Re: United States v Sarah Gillon, 19 Cr. 700 (VB)

Your Honor:

I represent Sarah Gillon in the referenced matter, and am writing to request that she be given permission to travel on September 28, 2020. When this prosecution commenced, Ms. Gillon was released on a bond, with one of the conditions being home detention. Ms. Gillon would now like to travel to Peekskill to pick her mother up from the hospital (following a surgery), bring her mother to her home, and cook a few meals for her that week. In order to to accomplish these tasks, Ms. Gillon would need to leave her home at 1 p.m. and return by about 9 p.m.

Pretrial services consents to this application. Earlier today, I emailed the government about this application, but have not heard back yet. On prior occasions, though, the government consented to similar requests.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
